SKILLS IN DEMAND

Source: The Most In-Demand Skills for Reliability and Asset Management Survey by Reliabilityweb.com
How would you describe yourself using these descriptions?

The top 35% of participants are more likely to work at corporate for multiple plants as the highest prevalence of work descriptions.

- 23% — I work in a single location plant
- 12% — I work in multiple location plants
- 35% — I work at corporate for multiple plants
- 30% — I am a solution provider or consultant

How would you rate the maturity of your organization's reliability and asset management journey?

Organizations with reactive planned are considered to be more reliable in the organization's asset management.

- 50% — Reactive-Planned
- 26% — Mostly Planned
- 9% — Precision
- 9% — Opportunistic (World-Class)
- 6% — Totally Reactive

Which geographic region best describes the location you work from?

A large number of participants belong to the USA (48%) as a working location.

- 48% USA
- 9% Canada
- 9% Latin America
- 5% UK
- 10% Europe
- 5% Asia
- 5% Australia and New Zealand
- 5% India
- 9% Africa
- 10% Middle East

What are the top 10 in demand skills by vote across all domains?

The top three in-demand skills observed from all the domain records are Lubrication and Contamination Control, Root Cause, and Computerized Maintenance Management System.

Skill	Responses
Operational Excellence	119
Managing Assets	121
Data Governance	123
Continuous Improvement	124
People and Culture at Work	124
Maintenance Leadership	129
Doing the Right Work	129
Computerized Maintenance Management Systems	129
Root Cause Analysis	131
Lubrication and Contamination Control	135

Who is directly responsible for competency-based learning and skills development for reliability and asset management in your organization?

The plant maintenance manager is most likely to hold these responsibilities at survey participants' organizations.

Responsible party	Responses
Plant Maintenance Manager	51%
Corporate Reliability Leader	33%
Executive Sponsor	17%
Human Resources	18%
Training Department	27%
Asset Manager	26%